Im filled with aggravation filled with anticipation for a future that is mine im so filled up with hate i just cant concentrate am i running out of time

[Chorus:] i wanna be a punk i wanna be a punk i wanna be a punk -DON'T YOU -FUCK YOU

You tried to sell me out thats not what im about come and get me if you dare you trashed my generation brainwashed by television images that arent really there im good for nuthin' another washed up has been im a dirty piece of scum im just a teenage waste my brains in outer space and im having so much fun
