I cant seem to remember and i cant seem to forget i cant remember day to day but my lifes not over yet i aint got no time and i aint got no will i aint got much of anything but i'm ready for my next big thrill

[Chorus:]

and it feels like im losing control when chaos has taken its toll and im goin insane.....today and im losin' my brain....hurray now i dont wanna leave here and i dont wanna stay my brain keeps telling me one thing but i go the other way i need something i can believe in i need me a bit of luck everybody wants to grow up but i dont give a fuck
