

I will ask you this,
"Can you spare a kiss?"
Can you picture this coming from my lips?
I'll whisper from miles away.
I will send you this and seal it with a kiss.
Can you take this lipstick and lightplay and carry it miles away?
y?

I will walk across the ocean
To where the sky meets the sea
And give this ghost my devotion to keep you from me.

Just say goodbye.
I live and I'll die
Hooked on a star,
Enraptured by the sky,
In love with a satellite.

I can now admit I'm lost in loveliness.
Who could just resist distant beauty?
Find me if you find a way.
You may love it if you tried this detachment.
From this distance the beauty burns brightly.
It's warmer from worlds away.

Just say goodbye.
I live and I'll die
Hooked on a star,
Enraptured by the sky,
In love with a satellite.

I'll stare forever and love whatever breaks my heart.
[x2]

Just say goodbye.
I live and I'll die
Hooked on a star,
Enraptured by the sky,
In love with a satellite.
