Dimebag

Blaze Bayley

I feel a diamond shine Somewhere in my mind When I hear the sound shine

The 8th of December in 2004 The wicked tragedy and horror that would shock us all

The was a diamond shining Shining so bright out there A bright and shining star of Texas shining everywhere

Silent insane and evil Thoughts stolen from his mind He has come to destroy Dimebag Where he plays and shines

The Alrosa villa Columbus Ohio Damageplan are rocking out doing their metal show

Up to the stage he's walking The gun is in his hand He starts shooting and won't stop until he's taken down From behind the madman A single shot gun blast Ends the madness but the horror of that night still lasts

Dimebag is shot four time And three more lost their lives And seven wounded by the evil In that twisted mind

Fifteen shots are fired Thirty five to go The courage and the carnage Of that night in Ohio

We are broken now We are broken down

Though you died You will always be alive here in me Though you died

I feel a diamond shine Somewhere in my mind When I hear the sound shine
