

Eating Children

Blaze Bayley

looking further than they see listening to the galaxy the kepler eye has found their dream gravity of gravity natures true reality the birth of the death of their birth to dust return they are chosen by those before them human seeds of the chosen ones flickering to a super nova silent saviour death gives birth eating children one by one children of the yellow sun black collapse of an iron core consuming life shadows and all horizon of that dark unknown is for the chosen ones alone dust to dust they are chosen by th ose before them
human seeds of the chosen ones flickering to a super nova silent saviour from death gives birth eating children one by one children of the yellow sun hydrogen fusion of 4 protons helium giant red hell has come eating children one by one children of the yellow sun now the chosen ones are gone
