

All That's Sweet

Bleach

I will strike the chord
That's honey to your ears
All that's sweet is yours

I will hum a verse
Of melodies rehearsed
And all that's sweet is yours

So here is my offering
Just a downbeat and a string
But to you it's a beautiful thing

And here is what I bring
Only downbeats and a string
And to you it's beautiful

I will strike the chord
That's honey to your ears
All that's sweet is yours

Loveliness you bring
I can't help but sing
All that's sweet is yours

When it seems I've broken down
When these chords are frail
You look with a smile
And you say it's beautiful
