

Epidermis Girl

Bleach

Sweetness whispers nothings in my ear
Nothing is exactly what I hear
With a glaze she gazes into space
Is there nothing more?
There must be something more

I can see that beauty is more than skin
My infatuation leads me to sin
Give me vision past the epidermis girl
Is there nothing more?
There must be something more

I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love
I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love

Sweetness whispers nothings in my ear
Nothing is exactly what I hear
Give me vision past the epidermis girl
Is there nothing more?
There must be something more
