Epidermis Girl

Sweetness whispers nothings in my ear Nothing is exactly what I hear With a glaze she gazes into space Is there nothing more? There must be something more

I can see that beauty is more than skin My infatuation leads me to sin Give me vision past the epidermis girl Is there nothing more? There must be something more

I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love I find a want, I want a need, I need a deeper love

Sweetness whispers nothings in my ear Nothing is exactly what I hear Give me vision past the epidermis girl Is there nothing more? There must be something more Bleach
