

Dishonour

Bleed from Within

I stand out in the cold for hours
Waiting to be struck down
I have never cursed someones name so many times
Even if it's just a myth
All I want is to be brought to you

I feel you watching over me
Inside it kills
The sound of your voice echoes in my head
From time to time I close my eyes till it passes
I have to live with this for the rest of my life

Every hour drags out
Every sunrise seems so dull
It's like every waking moment without you here

I stand out in the cold for hours
Waiting to be struck down
I have never cursed someones name so many times
Even if it's just a myth

Did you hear me screaming?
No from the top of my lungs
Did you hear that saddened sigh?

I feel you watching over me
Inside it kills
The sound of your voice echoes in my head
From time to time I close my eyes till it passes
I have to live with this for the rest of my life

Every hour drags out
Every sunrise seems so dull
It's like every waking moment without you here

That night of my life
You will regret for the rest of yours
I will see this fucking through
You have ruined everything I have ever lived for

I want to see this ground shake
I want to see this earth open up and Swallow every last one of us
To prove to me there is no fucking God
There is no fucking God
