

Nothing Left To Lose

Bleed from Within

Countless times I see the figure in my head
The only hope that this cannot be the end

Have I forsaken you Or have I forsaken myself
What have we got to lose

Someone once told me if you really believe in something
Then you have to see it through to the very end

I am left to pick up the pieces of everything we had and now
There's one piece missing so I am complete
My world has been torn apart pulling me down to my knees
I am gripping on pulling myself back rebuilding the foundations of my life

You will never understand this situation
Until you are on your knees
Praying for a miracle That will not just fall from the sky

My final affliction
