

Emotion Regression

Bleed The Dream

Every time I bite my lip
I take another sip of your lies
So don't act like you're surprised
That I can't force myself to swallow my pride

You take this piece of me
Surrendering
My wounds run deeper than the ocean
They just don't need me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
I'm having trouble with emotion
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore

Lets deconstruct this place
I'll rip every smile from every face
All your insecurities
I can make you feel like such a disgrace

You take this piece of me
Surrendering
My wounds run deeper than the ocean
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
I'm having trouble with emotion
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore

My voice just fades in the breeze
My voice comes back inside disease
My voice comes back to hunt you
My voice just fades in the breeze
My voice comes back inside disease
My voice comes back to hunt you

I know there's so much more to say
My wounds run deeper than the ocean
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
I'm having trouble with emotion
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
They just don't hear me anymore
