

Murder by Numbers

Bleeding Through

murder ascends it's beautiful face and sides with me.
everlasting sound is sweet.
all i wanted, to not be alone, but still you always leave me.

i want your eyes fixed on me, so i can watch them as you scream
and you were so beautiful.
but now you'll rot.

and no one will see your face.
and no one will dare speak your name.
i won't remember your eyes.

this is a war i must take, to wash these hands clear from choic es that i've made.
i'm not impressed.
still not impressed.
i'm not impressed.
still not impressed.

now you'll rot.
now you'll rot.
i won't remember your eyes.
i won't remember your face.
and i'll forever curse your name.
curse your name.

i want your eyes fixed on me
