

Murder by Numbers

Bleeding Through

murder ascends it's beautiful face and sides with me.
everlasting sound is sweet.
all i wanted, to not be alone, but still you always leave me.

i want your eyes fixed on me, so i can watch them as you scream
and you were so beautiful.
but now you'll rot.

and no one will see your face.
and no one will dare speak your name.
i won't remember your eyes.

this is a war i must take, to wash these hands clear from choices that i've made.
i'm not impressed.
still not impressed.
i'm not impressed.
still not impressed.

now you'll rot.
now you'll rot.
i won't remember your eyes.
i won't remember your face.
and i'll forever curse your name.
curse your name.

i want your eyes fixed on me
