

On Wings of Lead

Bleeding Through

Nothing was supposed to hurt like this. missing you was always one more kiss.
now there's nothing that i can do. one more nail in the coffin,
and it's all
for you. always were and always were a simple love story. you w ere everything i ever hoped and dreamed. drown me in a pool of my blood. it's getting harder
just to breathe. i'll suffocate you faster just so you can't se e, so you can't see me sleep. it's getting harder just to say the right things.
i've seen the angel's face, and i've heard her sing to me. from my reflection on this razor
blade, i've heard ten thousand dying screams, and they're calli ng me. the day will break on this saddest day, so don't let me wake. i've hear d this all before, and i've seen this over and over again. don't let me wa ke. drown me in a pool of my blood. it's getting harder just to breathe. i'll suf focate you
faster just so you can't see, so you can't see me sleep. so you can't see me
sleep. the day will break on this saddest day, so don't let me wake. i've heard this all before, and i've seen this over and over again. don't let me wake.
nothing was supposed to hurt like this. and missing you, was al ways one more kiss.
and now there's nothing that i can do. there's just one more na il in the coffin. there's just one more nail, and it's all for you. i've seen the angel's face, and i've heard her sing to me. from my reflection on this razor blade, i've heard ten thousand dying screams, and they're calling me. the d ay will break on this saddest day, so don't let me wake. i've heard this all before, and i've seen this over and over again. don't let me wake.
