

License To Sin

Blessed By A Broken Heart

Rolling the red dice
This is your final score
Walking on thin ice
Away from the shore

He paid a high price
Gave you an open door
Offered a new life
One worth dying for

This is your
Final score
This is your license to sin

This is your
Open door
And I won't let you
Fall away from Him
Calling out
But you ignore
Rolling the red dice
Is that worth dying for

Crossing the red line
Into the danger zone
Grieving the divine
Denying your savior

Come on and roll the dice
Or you'll pay the price

This is your final score
This is your open door
This is your license to sin

Don't roll the red dice
The odds are against you when the world is on your side
