

...And Then She Hit Me

Blessid Union Of Souls

7:35 I came to life
And threw my pants on
I searched for shoes
To fit the groove
To get my dance on to
Take a ride into town down
On main street where
A friend of mine was
Playing live down at RBCs
But girlfriend is taking so long
Hogging the bathroom
The phone
The she had the nerve
To say the words that
I should click and go
And don't change the mood with attitude
And I said
You should talk
Right then I knew I blew it
Right then I stepped into it
I knew that I would need
A drink to get through it
She just turned around a smiled
And then she hit me
And then she hit me
We walked in at Half past ten
And the place was packed
Saw some friends
I tried to smile
But my face was jacked
Cut the casualties
And made a bee line for the bar
Surprised I made it
Cause the leash it only goes so far
Long islands in my system
I felt like Sonny Liston
By the second round
I was going to town
And she was in her coat
I said I will find a ride tonight
But baby you can go
Right then I knew I blew it
Right then I stepped into it
Took another drink
And must have said screw it
And she just turned around and smiled
And then she hit me
And then she hit me
I know I drive her crazy
I bring out her best and worst
Its not her fault she loves me but
Its all my fault when she gets hurt
Right then I knew she lost it
She drew the line and I crossed it
I was drinking like
It was water from a faucet

And I just turned around and smiled
And then she hit me
And then she hit me
And then she hit me
