

Storybook Life

Blessid Union Of Souls

I said to myself "I'm the man, got a pocket full of money"
Certs in my mouth in case my breath is kinda funky
I saw a hottie staring right at me
She kinda looked like the chick that did the video with Tommy Lee

Oh man, is she coming over
I gotta get this show on the road, yeah, yeah, yeah

She said "Where have I seen you before
If you didn't like that one, well I got about twenty more
I need a mac diggity-daddy take me out
And in his caddy we can kick it till the briggity-briggity-break of dawn"

I said this sounds like fun but I ain't with it
But if you're a good boy I just might let you (cough)
Hold my hand because I ain't about to Wham-Bam-Thank-You-Ma'am
I hope you understand that

I don't want Britney tonight
And Selma, yeah she's alright
I've seen Buffy and she don't slay me

□Cause baby you're just the type
Stay up and talk to all night
Would you be the star in my storybook life
In my storybook life

Yo, I drove her home and she was feeling kinda frisky
I told her nighty-night and then she asked if she could kiss me
She said "Don't you wanna spend the night"
Then she bit me on the ear, felt like I was in a Tyson fight

Oh God, she's losing control now
So I said I just want someone to hold, yeah, yeah, yeah

Mariah, she ain't for me
That brunette on V.I.P.
She don't hold a candle to you

□Cause baby you're just the type
Stay up and talk to all night
Would you be the star in my storybook life

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Baby, you're just the type
I can talk to all night
Be the star in my storybook life

Sabrina, Felicity
Meg Ryan, I won't lose sleep
You can keep your Halle Berry

□Cause baby you're just the type
For the sure Mrs. Right
Would you be the star in my storybook life
In my storybook life

This is my storybook life
