

The Mission Field

Blessid Union Of Souls

Oh feet don't fail me now
Lead me where I should go
Oh heaven's light shine down
On the mission field

Oh Father fill my heart
Make me Your vessel true
Oh let me do my part
On the mission field

Eyes are opened fates are sealed
Hope is born here wounds are healed
God is present love revealed
On the mission field

Let every heart that beats
Know that I stand with You.
My enemies, You defeat
On the mission field

Long as my breath is drawn
Let me bear witness to
All those who might be lost
On the mission field

Eyes are opened fates are sealed
Hope is born here wounds are healed
God is present love revealed
On the mission field
