

Pray

Blessthefall

She's pulling out her eyelashes
From pain she bears
I'm far from home, I'm all alone
This hole is way too deep and
I've left behind my happy life
And I'm still asking how I died

Lay down, lay me down pray, now
Lay down, lay me down pray, now

I'm walking through the cold of night so I can see your face
At your window I will stand, and Your smell I will embrace
My eyes in yours and yours in mine
And now I know just how I died,

Lay down, lay me down, pray, now
Lay down, lay me down, pray, now

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

As fire falls, as fire falls
As fire falls, I've never made life before
As fire falls, I never had this before
As fire falls, as fire falls
