Lionheart

Blind Guardian

Just let me out of here Speak to me It all would be easier I want to talk to you. Who is that? Do I hear a whisper? Or do I hear a cry? Across the brown land The stumps of time Oh turn the wheel and heal me Since moonlight fade I'm empty - heal me I'm in search of the Lionheart I am ashamed I myself can't make it Drown Ulysses Drown here in the silence Cause down to Hades I've gone But I cannot get out Down below I can't free my mind Soon I will fade away Down below I can't free my mind Soon I will fade away "Tic Tac" is the message. And the lunatic fears He is no more Speak to me It all would be easier While I'm passing by Who's that? Do I hear a whisper? Or do I hear a cry? Across the brown land The ghosts arrive. Pick up my bones and Tell me Is this the "Lake of Fire"? Hell? Please I'm in search of the Lionheart Nobody else But the pure can save me. Drown Ulysses Drown here in the silence Cause down to Hades I've gone But I cannot get out.

Ruins rule my memories I can't recall the signs Invite the dead Then silence struck my mind

Silence is madness "Tic Tac Tic Tactic" Says the clock

Just let me out of here Speak to me It all would be easier I want to talk to you Hear me

Welcome to the sad place And hand me what is mine I'm the Theban prophet The dead and blind

And from sea you'll feel me Then you'll breath out gently Leave me

I'm in search of the Lionheart...
