

Lost in the Twilight Hall

Blind Guardian

Awaiting my last breath
The mirror calls my name it's showing me the way into the dark
the bridge appears I jump into the dark side and hear the voice it's cold as ice
"Welcome to reality"

Where am I now?
Darkness surrounds can't go forward
can't go back

I see planets dying
I fall into the light
a new universe awakes
I'm a Traveler in Time
pray for the light Where's the key to the gate of a new life - no
I search for deliverance but I cannot find

Look behind the mirror
I'm lost in the twilight hall
once I'll be back for a moment in time
that's when the mirror's falling down

Take me away from the place I've been to another life in another world
a sign of life surrounds me now the bridge appears in the dark I'm free
I fly alone leaving the darkness now, forever?
the memories of children and the wisdom of many lives burns deep in me Where will the light go to?
Where will the light go to?
Is this deliverance?
Is it the end?

Look behind the mirror
I'm lost in the twilight hall
that's when the mirror's falling down

I'm back there's a new chance for me and all my memories are gone I can feel what's happening to me and the mirror will burst

Look behind the mirror
I'm lost in the twilight hall
that's when the mirror's falling down
