St. Andrew's Hall

Blind Melon

Big stretch and not much sleep I got a couple of plam trees on each side of my cheek And it's a bright blue Saturday And the rummage sells the rubbish to me

But if I could buy the sky that's hangin' Over this bed of mine If I could climb these vines And maybe see what you're seein'

If you were standing on the corner staring straight Into the eyes of Jesus Christ

One porch, one dog, one cockroach only way to be I got sewage fruit and it's growing out back from roots I don't know if they belong to me But if I could buy the sky that's hangin'

Over this bed of mine And if I could climb these vines and maybe see what you're seein'

I can't tell you how many ways that I've sat, And viewed my life today, but I can tell you I don't think that I can find easier way So if I see you walking hand in hand in hand With a three armed man, you know I'll understand

(Pockets full of crappiness Can't piece together my day So I pose myself this question Maybe sleeps gonna get me in the shade I got my head buried in this pillow I got my head buried in this pillow So low...)

But you should have been in my shoes yesterday You should have been in my shoes yesterday
