

Which Side I'm On

Blind Pilot

Even the robin that cuts the dawn
Even his sound knows which side he's on Nothing that stays where it has been in the black
And the light is a candle on my screen
Flickers the real love the same old dream
Holding me in this middle moon
Looking back

I won't let it drink me down
Like a secret
I won't give in any more Than I've given
No matter how or hard enough
I'm still gonna drink from that broken cup Ya it knows which side I'm on

I have done wrong I've done wrong I've done wrong
and that weight will follow me
But that weight is the world's
The world's not mine
It is the place where I am
And I have lost I have lost I've lost
and that won't let go of me
But that story's not me
It's just who I can't change
And not who I can

I don't see the desert for its sand
I don't see the water for dry land
All that I love has turned to fuel for the fire
It's gonna burn me with its touch
It's gonna fill my loving cup
It knows which side I'm on

I have done wrong I've done wrong I've done wrong
and that weight will follow me
But that weight is the world's
The world's not mine
It is the place where I am
And I have lost, I have lost, I've lost
and that won't let go of me
But that story's not me
It's who I can't change
And not who I can

That story's not me
It's who I can't change
and not who I can
No that story's not me
it's just who I can't change
and not who I am

Oh! Oh it keeps me from
Oh! Oh it keeps me from
