

Set In Stone

Blinded Black

We tried to work this out
Pushing harder and farther
Until it's too much to take in
As a matter of fact I'm doing well
With your plan of attack just to bring me
Down to your level of insecurities
I light this match to watch you burn

So stay away
It's over from the get go
I'm asking you to let go
So take a break. Whoaa Whoaaaoo

Turn the page the final chapter
As the fights replace the laughter
And so the story unfolds
As a matter of fact you didn't make a sound
And your plan of attack was to hit the ground
Buried in your thoughts, while you gasp for air
I light this match to watch you burn

So stay away
It's over from the get go
I'm asking you to let go
And run away
This broken record plays through
I'm asking you to let go (your action speaks)
So dig your grave
Set in stone
(set in stone)

(You try to bleed
Just to see me smile
All these cuts mean nothing
But for you.)

You try to, you try to
You try to bleed to see me smile (For you)

So stay away
It's over from the get go
I'm asking you to let go
And run away
This broken record plays through
I'm asking you to let go (your action speaks)
So dig your grave
Set in stone
Set in stone
(set in stone)
