

Caught a Glimpse

Blindside

What just happened?
The Hollywood Empire strikes back
And this time I am standing in their way
Now I Waited for so long

For this to come along
Now this beauty and beast is starring in my face
Still silent voice whispers 'stay'

Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes
I'm in an old photograph
I'm back from the start

Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes and I'm ready
To give you my heart

Mayday, mayday
Too many voices too much noise in my ear
Don't want to lose contact over this black ocean
Now you sing follow love
I'll be safe in devotion

Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes
I'm in an old photograph
I'm back from the start

Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes and I'm ready
To give you my heart
