

It's All I Have

Blindside

Wake up the sun goes down
This day was shorter Another day goes by Another day passes by

Wake up and run for the crown
Not now but soon
we'll have a daughter
Another day goes by Another day passes by

I know it's all I have
I keep my promises to you in this pocket full of holes
And I know
I know it's all I have
But you look beautiful
in that bracelet of joy
You shine when you put on
that necklace of peace

Wake up my heavy heart Did I just swallow a stone?
This day would not go by Another day on standby
I woke up out of breath
Stuck in a dead zone
Another day to search the sky
Another day with nothing but clouds

I know it's all I have
I keep my promises to you in this
pocket full of holes
Yes I know
I know it's all I have
But you look beautiful
that necklace of peace

I know I can't make you wear it
But I sure will try
I know I can't make you wear it
But I sure will try

I know it's all I have
I keep my promises to you in this
pocket full of holes
And I know
I know it's all I have
But I can't make you wear it
