

Sometimes

Blitz Kids

Sometimes, I know you feel invincible
Sometimes, I bet you feel you've got it all
Sometimes, you wonder why you talk so easy
Sometimes, the first that jumps; the first to fall
Because there's seconds to go before we steal the show'

All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated
Now you're making up for lost time, you're making up for lost time Don't take your life for granted;
You only get once chance
You only get on life
You only get one chance
You only get one life

Sometimes, the only pleasure is through pain
Sometimes, you bend the rules before you play
Oh, this time, you play the shadow not the figure me
The man in you, the mirror is a small price to pay
But the game hates the player so this story goes'

All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated
Now you're making up for lost time, you're making up for lost time Don't take
your life for granted;
You only get once chance
You only get on life
You only get one chance
You only get one life

Try to entertain the possibility that all is not lost (When the truth serves no use, you move on)
But you underestimate the consequences of your actions and their costs
(Your actions and their costs)

You wore the crown, but now who's looking down'
I am a light with all the cold dead dirty words
That helped deceive my life right now

All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated
Now you're making up for lost time, you're making up for lost time Don't take
your life for granted;
You only get once chance
You only get on life
You only get one chance
You only get one life

Don't take your life for granted;
You only get one chance
(All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated)
You only get one life
(All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated)
You only get one chance
(All this time you never knew what it was like to be hated)

All this time you never knew
All this time you never, you never knew.
