

Title Fight

Blitz Kids

I was in my comfort zone when it first happened
When the cord of panic tied around my neck
My heart took flight and I ran for my life
I invented my own hell and now I suffer

I've got the strangest feeling
That we're gonna die tonight
My heart's racing fast just believing
That I'm losing my title fight

How I wish I could enjoy the things I love
And within my heart desires, oh, so much
My mind is cursed, my body's my hearse
Will I ever see the sky beyond the ceiling?

I've got the strangest feeling
That we're gonna die tonight
My heart's racing fast just believing
That I'm losing my title fight

I've got the strangest feeling
That we're gonna die tonight
My heart's racing fast just believing
That I'm losing my title fight
