

Sugars got a space ship running on empty rifts moving lovers undercover just like I said in a phantom world spinning out of time we just a sci-fi kids making dirty rimes I never really saw myself as a the running kind were just a digital brat with a insect mind were just a sci-fi kid like you

were just a sci-fi kid like you
were just a science-fiction kid like you
were just a science-fiction kid like you

Sugars got a space ship tripping over dusty stars keen cos living live playing vague guitar ?hack it in making holes in it smells so hot it's just a extra pot in a kid like me me - sci-fi kid like me

were just a sci-fi kid like you
were just a sci-fi kid like you
were just a science-fiction kid like you
Were just a science-fiction kid like you

Were just a science-fiction kid like you
Were just a science-fiction kid like you
Were just a science-fiction kid like you
Were just a science-fiction kid like you
Were just a science-fiction kid like you
