

Your Crying Eyes

Blitzen Trapper

You can't hide your crying eyes from me
Can't you see
That I just wanna know where you're going, yeah
You can't hide your crooked cuffs from me
'Cause it's showing
That I just wanna know if you're going
To the final dance with me
And if I've acted recklessly
Won't you give me a sign
Take the time to change my mind girl
And set me free

You can't hide your crying eyes from me
There's no knowing
When those tears start flowing
What it means
Are the tears you cry for me
Or some poor boy lost at sea
Til your crying eyes
Take the time girl to change my mind
And set me free

You can't hide your crying eyes from me
No you can't hide your crying eyes from me
Yeah you can't hide your crying eyes from me
