Anticipation

Blonde Redhead

Anticipate and evaluate What he thought And what I thought before You're broken like me Like me before

Dark place is your place I take dark drive to your place You're staring me You're staring with your inside eyes

Knowing you, knowing me We're deeply sorry You're broken maybe baby

Maybe it didn't happen Maybe all of this would go away And if we're ever young again He'll anticipate We'll evaluate
