

The End the End

Blondie

I see all the lonely souls
Nowhere left to go
I see you're the lonely
You're my one and only chance
Let's walk before we dance
You're my one and only

So take my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end
Hold my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end, the end
Together, together

Looking at the past
I never thought we'd last
Looking at it, never thought we'd last
And if I have to go
I'll see your face before
If I have to go

So take my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end
Hold my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end, the end
Together, together

Oh, don't speak, listen, my prediction
All I'll be missing is you
Tell me your vision, my decision is true
It's true, it's true, it's true

So take my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end
Hold my hand and help me stand
So we can watch the end, the end
Together, together
