

Serenity

Blood for Blood

Please God, grant me the serenity
To accept the fact that the human race
Is all things good and all things evil
At the same time for all time

Grant me the courage and strength
Not to give up on what I know is right
Even though I know it's hopeless
And please give me the wisdom to take it day by day