

She's Still A Bitch (called Hope)

Blood for Blood

Bitch Called Hope

All my life I relied on one thing and that one thing fucked me up even more

She is tempting and promises things that'll never happen of that I'm sure

Years I've wasted waiting for her to come through for me why was I so blind

Waiting innocently as time went on life's gotten worse my resentment's strong

Now I've smartened up I'm turning my back

I don't need her I gave her a smack

She failed me over and over again no surprise there she was never a friend

I've been dragging a bitch called hope (a bitch called hope)

I've been hanging at the end of her rope (a bitch called hope)

I've been dragging a bitch called hope (a bitch called hope)

I've been hanging at the end of her fucking rope

I'd have given her my heart and my dreams

She then strung me along threw away these years

Don't let that bitch take you for a ride like she took me and took most everyone I know

So I've kicked the bitch to the curb but in the end she's left me a bitter twisted motherfucker

I've been dragging a bitch called hope (a bitch called hope)

I've been dragging a bitch called hope (a bitch called hope)

I've been hanging at the end of her fucking rope
