

Always And Forever

Blood On The Dance Floor

I will love you to the stars and back
I will love you like my other half
Eternally bound; forever free
You are my magic

I'm lost in your eyes, you stop all the time
Let's crash like thunder; my last wonder
It's you and me against the world
Be my girl

We can escape all the sorrow
Reclaim all your lies tomorrow

There is something that you need to know
I can never ever let you go
There is something that you need to know
Always and forever, I'll love you so

Always & Forever

You were the one to open my heart
The puzzle piece that completes me
You were the one that showed me how to love
When I was a zombie

My love is undone, it will never end
I promise you that I will stay true
You are my star; my wish come true
I choose you

There is something that you need to know
I can never ever let you go
There is something that you need to know
Always and forever, I'll love you so

We have our ups & downs
But in love we can be found
We will never know
If we don't get up and go

I'm so lost in love
It's like heaven from above
You're my angel in disguise
You're the cherry to my pie

There is something that you need to know
I can never ever let you go
There is something that you need to know
Always and forever, I'll love you so

Always & Forever
Always & Forever
Always & Forever
Always & Forever
