

Hollywood Tragedy

Blood On The Dance Floor

My force is something that won't be ignored
My hands are clinching while they're holding your world
Scream about it baby
Make a fist
Your precious fucking world
Won't be missed

Don't forget
Just regret
The person that you are
Don't forget
Just regret
You weren't always a star

When you look in the mirror
Baby tell me
What do you see
Is it all you ever wanted
Is this the life
That you dreamed
Oh oh
You sold out be
Just a Hollywood tragedy
Oh oh
You sold out to be
Just a Hollywood tragedy

You play
The victim
In every situation
I can't take it no more
I've tried again and again
To convince you
In life there is so much more

Don't forget
Just regret
The person that you are
Don't forget
Just regret
You weren't always a star

When you look in the mirror
Baby tell me
What do you see
Is it all you had ever wanted
Is this the life
That you dreamed
Oh oh
You sold out be
Oh oh
You sold out to be

You say
You'll have fame

You'll be at the top
Someday
The truth is
It's pointless
No one even
Knows your name
You're too full
Of yourself
To love
Someone else
You compromised
Your entire life
Look what's left
While you're still alive

When you look in the mirror
Baby tell me
What do you see
Is it all you had ever wanted
Is this the life
That you dreamed
Oh oh
You sold out be
Oh oh
You sold out to be
