

Mourning Star

Blood On The Dance Floor

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're...

We were caught up in the moment and now that moment's passed
And I believe our last memory was the best that we could have
I put my head up on your shoulder and asked why life is this way
You said it's not for me to worry about and we'll meet again some day

How can you be so selfish?
I don't fucking understand
How can you tell me you're leaving?
And I'm left here to move on and I can't

They're gonna have to throw me in with you
When they put you in the ground
'Cause I ain't letting go, there's no way
Over my dead body I'm not letting you back out

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

It's hard to look you in the face
Without thinking of those better days
Time has passed, so much has changed
It isn't fair, there's too much pain

And when I feel like I'm breaking down
Your voice finds me when I can't be found
It picks me up but it leaves me sad
While I'm still hurt, I'm still fucking mad

I'd like to look death in the face
I'd knock him out and I'd take your place
But there's nothing I can do
This life is empty without you

But I leave you with this final song
To pay my respects and I say goodbye
Though the tears fall down my face
I still refuse to cry

I wish it was wrong but I know that it's time...

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're...

I know I'll never be alone
I'll always keep you in this song
No matter where I go
You'll still be with me when you're gone
