

Something Grimm

Blood On The Dance Floor

Once upon a never, you were the reason I lived
Always looking to you to make me feel like shit
Everyone knows fairytales don't exist
Hoping you could prove that love actually did

You find yourself from deep within
You cry for help, it's something grimm
You fall apart, you meet your end
Life is short, it's something grimm

La la la la
My heart has been impaled
La la la la
Life is no fairytale

Once upon a time, you were the reason that I lived
Once upon a time, you put the hope in hopeless
I refuse to live a life that's filled with regret
Don't want to grow old and miserable like you

You find yourself from deep within
You cry for help, it's something grimm
You fall apart, you meet your end
Life is short, it's something grimm

La la la la
My heart has been impaled
La la la la
Life is no fairytale

Shadows fall from everywhere
Shallow minds behind blank stares
Empty hearts & sorrow sings
There's no happy ending

Shadows fall from everywhere
Shallow minds behind blank stares
Empty hearts & sorrow sings
There's no happy ending

You find yourself from deep within
You cry for help, it's something grimm
You fall apart, you meet your end
Life is short, it's something grimm

Life is no fairytale
It's something grimm, it never ends
As the ships set a sail
It's something grimm, it never ends

As the weight tips down the scale
It's something grimm, it never ends
Our new lives will begin
It's something grimm, it never ends...
