

The Last Dance

Blood On The Dance Floor

Interlace your fingers in-between mine
Whisper in my ear tell me this won't be the last time
That you ever dance with that smile on your face
Look me in the eye tell me that you don't want to stay

If it's the last time
I'm gonna see you
I'm gonna show you
I'm gonna make you move
Come right over here boy
'Cause I've been holding back
If it's the last chance
I'm gonna make you dance

Get on the dance floor
This is your last chance
We'll do it hardcore
Get lost in this trance
The music's calling me
Are you listening?
My love's in prison
You hold the only key

From across the room
I see you standing there all alone
What's it like to feel like you're on your own?
Let our future be on the floor
Dance with me one last time
Leave our past at the door

It took a long time
To forget you
To pretend you're gone
And you left without a trace
I need you so bad
And it's more than words can say
So take my hand and we'll dance the night away

Get on the dance floor
This is your last chance
We'll do it hardcore
Get lost in this trance
The music's calling me
Are you listening?
My love's in prison
You hold the only key

Cure my addiction
Beautiful dark muse
Need your affection
You are my dream come true
You leave me breathless
You hypnotize me
Can't live without this
You mesmerize me

Save me from this darkness

Can you save me from my past?
Tell me that tonight will last forever
Let's spend this last dance together (together)

Blood On The Dance Floor
Music's calling me
You should be listening
My love's in prison

We are all connected and we are all one, one energy field
Or one supreme mind
Or the consciences
Or the one creative source
Call it whatever you want but we are all one
You cannot be harmed unless you call harm into existence
By emitting those negative thoughts
And feelings you are separating yourself
From the one and all good
By the law of love
You must not compete against yourself
And only focus on your dreams
Your visions
And all of your magnificence
You are the cosmic being
You are the power
You are the intelligence
You are perfection
All the power comes from faith and within
