

Dead
It's just the way I feel
One look
In the eyes if looks could kill
And I
I didn't learn from the first time
But I
Only got stronger from the lies

Do you know what it's like
To be judged every moment of your life
I'm not here to be criticized

I don't do it for any one else but me
Sorry if my confidence makes you uneasy
And I, I, I never gave a damn
Well the least I can say
Is I stuck by who I am

I
I never been the type
To be
So quied and so shy

All I know is how speak my mind
Can't blame me for wanting to run and hide
I'm not here to be criticized

I don't do it for any one else but me
Sorry if my confidence makes you uneasy
And I, I, I never gave a damn
Well the least I can say
Is I stuck by who I am

Do you know what it's like
To be judged every moment of your life

I don't do it for any one else but me
Sorry if my confidence makes you uneasy
And I, I, I never gave a damn
Well the least I can say
Is I stuck by who I am
