

Where's My Wonderland

Blood On The Dance Floor

Down you fell, deep into your mind
Off to wonderland, leaving what's real behind
You're a riddle I can't seem to read
Your love a fairytale, too hard to believe

Broken and sad as the tarnish on your crown
Nowhere to go but down
Caught up in yourself, nowhere to be found
No other way but down

Down, down, down
Down, down, down

Say your farewell too what's real
Like the pain that you feel
Welcome to Wonderland (It's dead)

Eat me or drink me
Seeing is believing
Wonderland, baby,
It's all in your head

Your cup runs over with emptiness
Chasing the hare of your innocence
Hide behind your cheshire smile
Once was vivid, was gray all the while

Broken and sad as the tarnish on your crown
Nowhere to go but down
Caught up in yourself, nowhere to be found
No other way but down

Down, down, down
Down, down, down

Say your farewell too what's real
Like the pain that you feel
Welcome to Wonderland (It's dead)

Eat me or drink me
Seeing is believing
Wonderland, baby,
It's all in your head
