

They Say No!

Blood or Whiskey

Welcome to fucking year zero a backward step taking every day a confessional truth tiresome disposition from the whitewash house can convey tanks bombs guns and ammunitions is the call of the order of today bulldoze those peoples mere identity doesn't matter much either way
they say no
they say no again!
congress will stand in adulation leaving their playground of filth in disarray while countries torn by ambition is this what the new world order can convey
