

Charcoal Baby

Blood Orange

When you wake up
It's not the first thing that you wanna know
Can you still count
All of the reasons that you're not alone?
When you wake up
It's not the first thing that you wanna know
Can you still count
All of the reasons that you're not alone?

No one wants to be the odd one out at times
No one wants to be the negro swan
Can you break sometimes?
Can you break sometimes? (sometimes, ooh)
Charcoal make it start and make me liked at times
Look me down at queens all of the world
Can you break sometimes?
Can you break sometimes? (sometimes)

When you wake up
It's not the first thing that you wanna know
Can you still count
All of the reasons that you're not alone?

No one wants to be the odd one out at times
No one wants to be the negro swan

Can you break sometimes? (sometimes, oh)
Charcoal make it start and make me liked at times
Look me down at queens all of the world
Can you break sometimes? (sometimes)
Can you break sometimes? (sometimes)

(Can you break sometimes?)
No one, no one
(Can she break sometimes?)
No one, no one
(Can you break sometimes?)
No one, no one
(Can she break sometimes?)
No one, no, no one

Can you break sometimes?
Can you break sometimes?
Can you break sometimes?
Can you break sometimes?
