

Happiness

Blood Orange

How do you know when life will choose to fade away?
How do you know if you've been wrong?
Put it down and show you've taken all that fades
Know it'll take too long

And it seems like it's so natural to stay
I say I'm holding on
Would you notice (Would you notice)
If I wrote you something?
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade

And it seems like it's so natural to stay
I say I'm holding on, uh, uh
Would you notice (Would you notice)
If I wrote you something?
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade
Happiness will fade
