

Instantly Blank (The Goodness)

Blood Orange

Wake up tasty treats, your quilts are incomplete
Lover, stay in bed, ambivalence your head
Distancing to breathe as this Mongrel lost his keys
Owner, set me free, so the ocean cleans my feet

Please, this can't be true?
Oh, don't be my undoing
Mother sure will cry when she sees our spark has died
Chapel on the hill, the freeway unto will
Wedding clothes all gone, my Cadillac won't run

I keep on trying
All I can be
What you wanted wasn't me

I'll never want to go out
I'll love you ever always
I'll never want to go out
I'll love you ever always
Just say you'll let me in your heart
I'll love you ever always
I'll never want to go out
I'll love you ever always
