

No Right Thing

Blood Orange

You won't hear my name I can't watch you throw it all away...away
You are playing games, I'm done trying to help you run down, escape...escape

But you look away, and I look to you
That's where we are, and what we saw was you
On your own, and I'm on my own
And we were wrong, there's no right thing

I've been you've been my everything, and i've seen your worst baby
This is what it comes to
Knowing we're broken

I've been changing my whole scene
You need somebody different
This is where we got to
Knowing that you're the wrong thing

But you look away, and I look to you
That's where we are, and what we saw was you
On your own, and I'm on my own
And we were wrong, there's no right thing

(2x):

But you can't see me, when you're pushing me away
I'm the one who sees you, I'm the one who needs you

But you look away, and I look to you
That's where we are, and what we saw was you
On your own, and I'm on my own
And we were wrong, there's no right thing
