

Everything All At Once

Blood Red Shoes

I'm not asking for permission to live any more
I'm not waiting for a future that might never come
My feet are in the mud, my head is in the sun
So gimme all of it, give it to me all at once
I'll be the last to ask, I'll be the first to jump
So give me all of it, everything all at once

This prescription is a message I don't understand
It's not important if you stop or if you start again
Tomorrow never comes, I know I'D never land
So gimme everything that I can carry in my hands

Don't slow me down, in and out of my self control
All dressed up but I got no place to go
Don't slow me down, in and out of my self control
All dressed up but I got no place to go

Intoxicated by the moment I can lose myself
It's not important if it's me or if I'm someone else
Forever looking for another open door
The satisfaction never lingers so just give me more

Don't slow me down, in and out of my self control
All dressed up but I got no place to go Don't slow me down.
