

Somebody I Trusted

Blood, Sweat & Tears

Why should I worry when I know you're in love with me
Why should I care when there's joy everywhere
How can't I see the magic of the light
When somebody I trusted, somebody I knew quite well
Somebody I loved, reached up and turned out the light
Turn my day into night - put out the light

Why should I hurry, when I know you're right behind me
It just ain't fair when there's love everywhere
How can I see the beauty of the light
When somebody I trusted, somebody I knew quite well
Somebody I loved, reached up and turned out the light
Turn my day into night - put out the light
Put out the light

I got this little melody
I think it's bringing the blues right down on me
Sometimes I hear a symphony
That's what I hear when someone gets the best of me

And I got this little melody
I think it's bringing the blues right down on me
Sometimes I hear a symphony
That's what I hear when someone's getting the best of me

Somebody I trusted, somebody I knew quite well
Somebody I loved, reached up and turned out the light
Somebody I trusted, somebody I knew quite well
Somebody I trusted, must have been somebody I knew quite well
