Tell Me That I'm Wrong

Blood, Sweat & Tears

Come on and
Tell me that I'm wrong
All I know is how I feel
Show me how to be strong
Girl, I need you more day by day

Let your heart take a chance
Ain't you tired of fooling yourself
Give it what it wants
Give it love like everyone else

It's only natural
That you wanna be free
How can you deny this feeling

Tell me that I'm wrong
Now you know just how I feel
Show me how to be strong
When I need you more day by day

I believe this is love I'm in
I got that Sunday morning feeling
You hit me hard
I know you felt it too now
It's the same old, man
It ain't nothing new

You are the happiness
That I longed
That I longed for
But most of all
Girl, I want you to fall
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Tell me that I'm wrong
I believe our love is strong
I got that Sunday morning feeling
Lord, it's got me, it's got me
It's got me, it's got me

I need you more
Day by day, day by day
