Master of My Dreams

Bloodbound

We might feed you lies But it's all OK Keeps you all from going places What's behind the lies? You don't wanna know Leaves you out there in the cold What is out there? Let me know Help me out here Let me go You might be what someone Needs to fear You might be what someone Else holds dear Doesn't mean that much to me I'm the master of my dreams You might need commands You'll feel right at home In this world where nothing changes
